1. With the receipt of quotas to the Armed Forces Staff College, CIA now has authority to send career officers to all ten Department of Defense colleges and schools listed in CIA Notice [redacted] of 4 February 1952.

3. Received from Department of the Air Force a quota of fifteen for participation in the series of five-day Special Weapons Orientation Courses (Atomic) to be conducted April - December this year at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. Under this arrangement only one or two CIA personnel will be away at a given time and each person will take only one five-day course. Both civilian Agency personnel and Air Force officers on duty at CIA are eligible to attend. Selection has been initiated.

4. Members of the Office of Training staff briefed CIA personnel recruiters on our training operations and requirements. These briefings will be repeated next week and the week after for other CIA personnel recruiters.

5. Chief, Orientation and Briefing Division conducted a special course for I&S field personnel on "Security Responsibilities and their Relationship to the Functions of CIA."

6. Arrangements have been completed for a tour of the FBID East Coast Monitoring Station by students enrolled in the [redacted] Course.
